among the rooters and this may indicate a beginning of a revival in interest.

The New York Americans have finally made arrangements to play an exhibition game in Bloomington Thursday.

Secretary Bering of the Decatur team makes the cheering announcement that the team from that city will be in the hole $2,000 this season.

Decatur Herald: A couple of members of the Rock Island team did not accompany the club to Springfield Saturday night, preferring to remain over till the next morning in order to fill a date they had made with a couple of Decatur girls. However, they were sorely disappointed in their date. The girls decided that they had other fish to fry and left the two Islander players standing on a certain corner a couple of hours waiting for them in vain.

Dubuque Telegraph: Forsyth, it would seem as if those who were clamoring for a shake-up in the lineup of the Miners were about to have their eager wishes gratified, inasmuch as there is a well defined rumor emanating from a very excellent source to the effect that within a very few days there will be at least three new faces on the team. Even the position to be filled by these new players have been given out, but for the time being it is thought best to withhold these. For the benefit of those of the baseball enthusiasts who doubt the fact that the management of the club has been making earnest efforts to strengthen the team, it is known that only last week $1,500 was offered in an endeavor to land three players who were found to be desirous. The handsome consideration of $750 was held out for one of the trio, and $750 for the other two. It was found impossible, however, to secure their services.

There is nothing so pleasant as that bright, cheerful, at-peace-with-the-world feeling when you sit down to your breakfast. There is nothing so conducive to good work and good results. The healthy man with a healthy mind and body is a better fellow, a better workman, a better citizen than the man or woman who is handicapped by some disability, however slight. A slight disorder of the stomach will derange your body, your thoughts and your disposition. Get away from the morbidness and the blues. Keep your stomach in tune and both your brain and body will respond. Little indiscretions of overeating can be easily corrected and you will be surprised to see how much better man you are. Try a little Kodol For Dyspepsia after your meals. Sold by all druggists.

ASKS FOR RELEASE

Milton Wires President Sexton He Can Be of No Use to Islanders.

HE AND OWSLEY ARE DROPPED

Carlisle Again Stricken With Fever—Team Plays at Springfield Tomorrow.

The Rock Island baseball management has released both Milton and Owsley, the two pitchers recently signed to help out the regular staff in its present crippled condition. Milton was let go at his own suggestion, a most manly one, by the way, and one that does credit to his honor as a ball player. After the game he lost at Decatur he wired President Sexton that he feared he could do the Islanders no good and felt that a stronger man had better be secured. Though he was signed at a high salary he evidently realized that either his condition was not up to his old standard or that the league pace was faster than in the days of old and he did not wish to be a burden. Owsley was let go for the reason that he does not appear to have the goods for this league.

Carlisle Again Sick.
Added to the discouraging situation in the pitching department comes word that Carlisle has again been stricken with fever, his temperature being 106 at last accounts. He is in Springfield, out of course, will not be able to play. As the ailment has been hanging on for some time, it may mean a serious illness this time.

Matters were not brightened a bit by receipt of news from Manager McConnell this morning that it was still raining at Springfield with the prospects poor for a game today. Of course, the team will be held at the capital tomorrow and if the weather will permit a double header may be played. Though tomorrow is an off day, it is likely that all the teams will be engaged if possible.

Last Four Weeks of "The Lion and the Mouse."

Charles Klein's intensely interesting play of American life has achieved the greatest success ever known in the history of American theatricals at the Illinois theater, Chicago. This up-to-date play which has been holding Chicago audiences spellbound for the past three months is now playing the last four weeks of its stay at the Illinois theater, the engagement positively ending Saturday evening, Sept. 1. As the company is booked in Boston to open Sept. 3, these four remaining weeks will be the last opportunity for out-of-town patrons to witness the most successful play in years. "The Lion and the Mouse" is given nightly Sundays included, with matinees every Wednesday and Saturday. The matinees are over at 4:30 p. m., and the evening performances at 10:30 p. m., which allows ample time for visitors to the city to catch returning trains. The play is by Charles Klein, the author of "The Music Master," and is a drama that deals with a widely discussed topic of the hour—that of the influence wielded by the money power in American politics today. Its dominant personage is John Burkett Ryder, the acknowledged leader of the financial world, in which he is known as "Ready Money" Ryder. The coteries of moneyed magnates, of which he is the head, has been halted in its career by an adverse decision rendered by Judge Rossmore, a man of stern probity in the administration of the office to which the people have elected him. In retaliation Ryder and his friends secure with the aid of corrupt politicians, Judge Rossmore's temporary suspension from the bench because of alleged fraudulent practices. His daughter Shirley, summoned home from Europe, returns to find her father dishonored, bankrupt and broken in health. Ryder alone is in possession of the proof of her father's innocence and she determines to secure it from him. Through an ingeniously plausible chain of circumstances she becomes a member of the Ryder household, winning the affections of every member, and becoming invaluable to Ryder. She has concealed her identity under the name of Shirley Green. Her secret is known only to Jefferson Ryder, the son of the money king. Jefferson has fallen in love with Shirley, whom he met on the voyage from Europe. He is in sympathy with her purpose, even although the consummation means the defeat of his father. The struggle between the "lion" and the "mouse" is rapidly approaching a climax, when the love story of Jefferson and Shirley suddenly assumes a vital issue in a situation that is strikingly but logically dramatic. Mr. Klein has brought about the happy termination of Shirley's romance and her triumph without straining at the possibilities, but with a finely commendable logic. Many of the players assembled by Mr. Harris for the production here are pronounced favorites. The cast includes Gertrude Coghlan, Arthur Byron, Joseph Kilgour, George Parsons, Grace Thorne, Flora Juliet Bowley, Edward See, Louise Compton, P. S. Barrett, Ada Curry, A. S. Lipman, Edith Shayne, W. H. Burton and Florence Gerald.
